

Adult Emergency Department
Emergency Ultrasound
Limited Bladder Exam
Page 1 of 1

Patient Name _____
MRN _____
PATIENT IDENTIFICATION LABEL

Indication:

A focused ultrasound exam of the urinary bladder was performed to evaluate for urinary retention. The ultrasound was performed with the following indications, as noted in the H&P:

- Abdominal pain
- Abdominal distention
- Decreased urine output
- Other indications as noted in the H&P

Identified structures:

The urinary bladder was examined in both transverse and sagittal planes.

Findings:

Exam of the urinary bladder revealed the following findings:

Bladder width (centimeters): _____

Bladder depth (centimeters): _____

Bladder height (centimeters): _____

Estimated volume of urine (milliliters): _____

Bladder stones: Absent Present

Bladder diverticula: Absent Present

Other bladder findings: _____

Impression:

- Normal limited bladder ultrasound
- Urinary Retention
- Empty Bladder
- Other: _____

Physician signature: _____ Pager ID _____ Date _____ Time _____ AM/PM

CPT: 76857-26